Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is densely packed and covers most of the page. The script is highly stylized and difficult to decipher. There are several lines of text that appear to be headings or section markers, such as "AN" and "AN". The text is written in black ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. The overall appearance is that of a historical record or a collection of notes.

STATE OF ISRAEL IS BORN

The first independent Jewish State in 19 centuries was born in Tel Aviv as the British Mandate over Palestine came to an end at midnight on Friday, and it was immediately subjected to the test of fire. As "Medinat Yisrael" (State of Israel) was proclaimed, the battle for Jerusalem raged, with most of the city falling to the Jews. At the same time, President Truman announced that the United States would accord recognition to the new State. A few hours later, Palestine was invaded by Moslem armies from the south, east and north, and Tel Aviv was raided from the air. On Friday the United Nations Special Assembly adjourned after adopting a resolution to appoint a mediator but without taking any action on the Partition Resolution of November 29.

Yesterday the battle for the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv road was still under way, and two Arab villages were taken. In the north, Acre town was captured, and the Jewish Army consolidated its positions in Western Galilee.

Most Crowded Hours in Palestine's History

Between Thursday night and this morning Palestine went through what by all standards must be among the most crowded hours in its history. For the Jewish population there was the urgent need to take the few hundred thousands who had come to the State of Israel in the past few years. There came to a full equipped airport foreign troops and property to meet a victory which was a foregone conclusion. What could not be done, with no communication, was Thursday morning, was achieved and by what means the Red Cross and the State Council would receive supplies for the dead, the wounded, and property taken for the dead. Orders to some of these various agencies have now been received.

This crossing was a triumph, for two weeks earlier civil rights marchers had been turned back by tear gas, clubs and horses by the state troopers. Soon thereafter the 1965 Voting Rights Act was passed. Photograph by Robie Ray.
