MONDAY

Daniel & Ezra with M. Victoria Sutton: These narratives tell the story of the Jewish people between the First and Second Temples. From the writing on the wall to the lion's den, we will explore the life and times of the prophet Daniel in the Babylonian court. Next, we turn to Ezra haSofer, the pivotal figure in returning the people, and Torah, from the Babylonian exile to Jerusalem. As we journey through this critical time in Jewish history, we will learn about these amazing figures, their challenges and choices, and how they can inform our own experiences both in the Diaspora and in Israel.

M. Victoria Sutton — Mondays @ 12:00 pm.

NCSY LNL – Latte & Learning (for Teens; Grades 9-12): Latte & Learning brings Judaism to local coffee shops and serves up Torah in a relaxed and fun setting. LNL is the place for teens to ask questions, voice their feelings, and connect with each other.

Mondays, 7:30-8:30 p.m. • Starbucks, 2128 Oxford St, Berkeley

TUESDAY

Maimonides & Modernity w/Bernie Steinberg: Halakhist, philosopher, court physician, local and world Jewish communal leader, the Rambam (Moses Maimonides, 1138-1204) inhabits diverse intellectual, social and political spaces. His teaching is particularly relevant to the modern condition when Jews move between a multiplicity of worlds, when they reject simplistic views of God, ethics, and politics yet seek a life of purpose, and when the ancient aspiration of Jewish sovereignty has been actualized in unanticipated and complex ways. During these sessions, we shall explore the relevance of Maimonides' thought to pressing themes of the modern condition: The problem of modern identity; the relationship between theology and ethics; the tension between faith and politics.

Bernie Steinberg, Director Emeritus, Harvard Hillel, teaches at the Graduate Theological Union, and Kevah in Berkeley, and M2 The Institute for Experiential Jewish Education, based in Chicago. He recently wrote an essay on Maimonides for Oxford University Press Bibliographies.

Join us for the second CBI Film!

Sunday, February 26 at 4:30 pm- 7pm

@ the home of Dan & Robinn Magid (North Berkeley)

We will be watching "The Kind Words", a 2016 film by Israeli director and screenwriter Shemi Zarhin, which follows three siblings who learn a provocative family secret after the sudden death of their mother. The three siblings begin an epic journey that takes them from Israel to Paris, to learn the truth about the past, their family and even their identities. According to one review, "Humor creeps in from strange sources, including a seller of funeral packages and a march through a Paris graveyard. And while not every motivation is clear, subtext isn't everything in a movie as complex and satisfying as this one."

To learn more about the film & watch a trailer visit:

The Magid's will provide light, dairy/pareve hors d'oeuvres, wine and chocolate. RSVP to Miriam (barrerem@gmail.com) strongly encouraged, but not needed to attend.
