Beth Israel Classes

SUNDAY

Jewish Meditation Group: A Hasidic Approach to Jewish Meditation based on the Teachings of the Maggid of Mezeritch and other Hasidic Masters, in theory (haskafah) and practice.
This is not a class! It is a group to create and support a chevra of meditators in our community. Beginners can come to learn the basics. Those more experienced can practice a quiet meditation you already do and discover more of the wealth of our contemplative tradition.
R. Ken Lipman, Ph.D. — Sundays, 9:30 am-10:45 am @ CBI

MONDAY

Key Books in Tanakh: Book of Samuel: Following the chaotic period of the Judges, the Book of Samuel narrates the centralization of leadership in Israel. The book opens with the birth of the prophet Samuel, who unifies the nation, and crowns the first kings of Israel. The Book of Samuel presents a gripping exploration of political personalities, palace intrigue and the role of God in the lives of kings and nations.
M. Victoria Sutton — Mondays @ 12:00 pm.

WEDNESDAY

Emmanuel Levinas: Nine readings of the Talmud by the French Jewish philosopher Emmanuel Levinas translate Jewish thought into the language of modern times. Here Levinas applies a hermeneutic that simultaneously allows the classic Jewish texts to shed light on contemporary problems and lets modern problems illuminate the texts. Besides being quintessential illustrations of the art of reading, the essays express the deeply ethical vision of the human condition that makes Levinas one of the most important thinkers of our time.
Muni Schweig — Wednesdays @ 8:00 pm @ the Schweig home

FRIDAY

Talmudic Wisdom: Join us for a weekly class on Tractate Chagigah that explores major Jewish questions of practice and thought. In this week's class we will begin the second chapter of the tractate.
R. Yonatan Cohen — Fridays, 9:00 am

In Beth Israel

Bar Mitzvah of David Kenin: The Kenin family warmly invites the community to a Kiddush lunch in honor of the bar mitzvah of David Kenin on July 20, Parshat Balak.

Tea & Torah: Join us monthly in an intimate home setting, for a daytime weekday opportunity to connect with friends and learn together. In The Community

Film screening in tribute to Yvette Hoffer, July 26, 1:40pm @ Albany Twin

Theater: Yvette's children Avi & Rena Hoffer will be sponsoring a documentary called 'Beyond the Bolex' about the creator of the first affordable 16mm movie camera, as part of at this year's San Francisco Jewish Film Festival. This camera revolutionized amateur and professional filmmaking. In fact, Yvette's father, Abe Cooper, himself a professional photographer, shot movies of Yvette's 7th Birthday party with a borrowed Bolex camera. The family attended the SF Jewish film festival together for many years.

If you are interested in joining, you can purchase tickets here:

Maker Kollel - Applications now open, through July 18th!

Atiq is pleased to announce the launch of the Maker Kollel, a part-time applied arts studio residency program. Applicants should have some background in Jewish text study and in art production or making. During the course of this three month long fellowship, participants have a dedicated workspace/tiny desk within the Atiq studio and receive a $300 stipend for purchase of materials (or for any other use). Each fellow will choose a thread of inquiry to explore within Jewish tradition, and work towards the production of a sacred artifact that reflects on that thread of inquiry. Kollel fellows have the opportunity to work on their own, as a cohort, and to share work with the broader Bay Area community. Master Scholars and Artist/Makers will share their expertise in evening workshops, and all fellows will receive mentoring as they work on their projects. We are thrilled that the Maker Kollel will be offered in consortium with the Jewish Studio Project, wherein Kollel fellows will have the opportunity to attend community facing Jewish Studio Project workshops at no cost.

The inaugural cohort dates run from Sept. 3 - Nov 27.

The Maker Kollel is funded in part by a grant from UpStart. We are so grateful for the support!

Applications are now open, through July 18th. More information, and the application can be found at <https://www.atiqmakers.org/makerkollel>.

Please share this info with any and all who might be interested!
